Ghostlight

August 7 and 9, 2 and 7:30 p.m.

Directed by Kelly O'Sullivan and Alex Thompson, 2024,
United States Rated R, 115 min.

When melancholic construction worker Dan (Keith Kupferer) finds himself drifting from his wife and daughter, he discovers community and purpose in a local theater's production of Romeo and Juliet. As the drama onstage starts to mirror his own life, he and his family are forced to confront a personal loss.

Kinds of Kindness

August 14 and 16, 2 and 7:30 p.m.

Directed by Yorgos Lanthimos, 2024, United States,
Rated R, 164 minutes

Kinds of Kindness is a triptych fable, following a man without choice who tries to take control of his own life; a policeman who is alarmed that his wife who was missing-at-sea has returned and seems a different person; and a woman determined to find a specific someone with a special ability, who is destined to become a prodigious spiritual leader. Director Yorgos Lanthimos reunites with Emma Stone and Willem Defoe, the stars of his Oscar-winning film, Poor Things.

No Film
August 21 and 23

National Anthem

August 28 and 30, 2 and 7:30 p.m.

Directed by Luke Gilford, 2024, United States,
Rated R, 99 minutes

Dylan (Charlie Plummer), a soft-spoken 21-year-old construction worker, is the de facto father figure to his little brother and works odd jobs to help the family get by. After he finds himself with the opportunity to work at a ranch, he is welcomed by a vibrant community of rodeo performers who openly explore their identities and sexuality. He is especially drawn to Sky (Eve Lindley), a force of nature who Dylan connects with deeply, as he begins to forge his own identity.
